

Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1876

---

11-24-1876

Mount Vernon Democratic Banner November 24, 1876

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.kenyon.edu/banner1876>

---

A Settlement Wanted.

☛ A man in Boston announces that he is prepared to furnish American dominions the title of earl or count, for $10,000 each. But these fools who are anxious to buy titles at such high figures had better wait until Grant establishes the Empire when they can probably strike a better bargain.

 We have neither time nor room this week to notice the idiotic ravings of the old sermon-thief of the Republican.—When questions are before the American people, involving the perpetuity of Republican Institutions, we cannot afford to stop in the path to kick barking puppies out of the way.

United States troops in the city proper, and more are easily available.

The New York Express, thoroughly disgusted with the Electoral system of choosing a President, hoists the following at the head of its editorial page:

"For a Constitutional Amendment whereby the People of the United States can Vote Directly for President and Vice President."

Tilden's official majority in Maryland is 19,710. Well done "Maryland, my Maryland."

ount Hayes in fraudulently is probably the most monstrous political crime ever conceived in this country. If successful it would be the murder of the Republic; it would be the end of official accountability to the people; the end of elections; henceforth our rulers would be named for life by those in power at Washington.

(Signed) W. P. KELLOGG.

Grant has pardoned Deacon Mc-
Cee, Editor of a Radical organ in St. Louis, the  Globe-Democrat, out of jail, and Wilson O. Avery out of the Missouri Penitentiary. Let all guilty men escape, is the sentiment of Grant.

Shall a minority President be forced in the country by fraud, violence and a tyranny despotism? That is the question it is now before the American people,

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

Wonder what Colonel Bob thinks of Jehovah these days?

Bayard Taylor calls it the cyclone of political uncertainty. He's windy.

Nobody has insisted on a fair count of the vote of the prohibition candidates.

Who knows but what they may find Charey Ross in either Florida or Louisiana?

Twenty tons of coal are stolen daily from the trains at Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

England has lost $500,000,000 by Turkish, Spanish, Egyptian and South American defaults.

Miss Luta Bewley, not yet in her teens, won the cooking match at the Anderson (S. C.) fair.

Mr. John Morrissey holds $1,250,000 in his pool-box, awaiting the clearing away of the suspense.

Dan Snyder, of Tipton, Indiana, has been bound over on a charge of poisoning his step-daughter.

A burning barn in Germany so warmed up an orchard that the trees lost new leaves and blossoms.

A woman nominated herself for School Commissioner at Henry, S. C., and got most horribly beaten.

A large number of immigrants from Kansas have settled on farms on the Willamette river, in Oregon.

An exchange says that some Americans are too proud to work, too honest to steal; hence they get rich.

An old woman at the Stratford (Conn.) poor-house spent her 100th birthday in gathering old apples.

A couple got married last week at Washington's tomb. It is time there was some re-pairing done there.

An Indiana man has expended $2,000 in a law-suit over a yoke of oxen, and the suit is still in the courts.

A good many irritable men have been looking round after the individual who asserted that "figures won't lie."

Mr. Patterson, of California, wished to be known by his fruits. He has raised eighty tons of prunes this year.

It is estimated that there are 18,000,000 cows in the United States. The number of milkmen's pumps is not stated.

Eleven hundred girls are employed at one artificial flower factory in France, none being over twenty years of age.

Commodore Vanderbilt cast his first vote for James Monroe, and has voted at every election since, except the last one.

An English writer, speaking of Eliza Barrist, says he looks as though he had just dropped out of the Old Testament.

Chicago has 76,000 voters within ten miles of its Court-house, and Cincinnati has 70,000 within a corresponding limit.

Iowa wants a law against the commercial-traveler flitting evil, which is getting to be worse than the three-card monte game.

A woman in Jersey City on Halloween threw some lime mistaken for flour into a boy's eyes and he will probably lose his sight.

Mrs. Stillans, the wife of a physician living in Clarinda, Iowa, has fallen heirless to property worth $8,000,000 in England.

Miss Helen Taylor, the stepdaughter of John Stuart Mill, is a candidate for the School Board in one of the London districts.

Another reach of scientific fact is recorded; rats will not stay where goats are. The judgment of the rat is to be commended.

The Hon. Orestes Cleveland announces himself a candidate for Jersey Senatorial honors, to succeed Senator Frelinghuysen.

The San Francisco residence of the W. O. Ralston has been leased by New York parties, who will convert it into a boarding house.

Mrs. Alton, whose first husband was Capt. Popoli, is about to be married to Captain Ziegler, of the Republican Guards in Paris.

A petrified honeycomb is the latest California novelty. The combs are of old honey, and wax and honey are turned into solid stone.

Father Bollig, who was recently appointed to the office of Custos of the Vatican Basilica, is able to converse in fifty-two languages.

There have been nine murders committed within Chicago's borders since Judge McAllister made those rulings in the Sullivan case.

Over in the Colorado mountains a woman has collected fifty bushels of grasshoppers, and scalded and dried them to winter chicken food.

Henry Saltanoff, of Massachusetts, recently owned a cow that gave over a thousand three hundred and sixty-five quarts of milk in a year.

A well appointed colony for Eau Claire river, Wisconsin, arrived at New York a few days ago from Germany and started for their destination.

An unusually intelligent Justice of the Peace, in Baltimore, where a Chinese man on a tea chest the other day in default of the writings of Confucius.

Ben Perley Moore has promised to arrange a "farmer's kitchen" for the Revolutionary relics to be exhibited at the Old South Church in Boston.

A Detroit man, just home from the Black Hills, being interrogated as to their richness, answered: "There's lots of gold there, boys, but it costs hair!"

A great deal of interest is taken in England in the candidature of Helen Taylor, step-daughter of John Stuart Mill, for the School Board of Southwark.

Watkins Glen is to be bridged for the Geneva & Corning Railroad. The structure will be built of iron, and span the chasm at the height of 150 feet.

The man with a dirty shirt who said there was no water at home to wash his clothes, proved to be a single man who had no credit with his washerwoman.

It is strange that the girl who now crowd herself and lover into a very narrow rocking chair, is the same one who always occupies three feet of the seat in a horse car.

Von Armin is not discouraged. He is going to commence a suit against Prince Bismarck for libel. But it is hard fighting against Bismarck in the courts of Prussia.

Chili now manufactures nearly all its own woolen goods, and refines the sugar of Peru. Its paper mills and tanneries supply the general trade of South America.

A Chicago woman had her husband's funeral procession stop at the door of the president of an insurance company that he might be satisfied that the man was really dead.

For the purpose of inducing attention to the merchants of Richmond, Ind., the considering the feasibility of running a train to that city from the surrounding towns at stated intervals.

Brooklyn Argus: The President has sent Benjamin H. Brock to New Orleans. The announcement is made as a timely warning to the people of that city to remove their valuables.

The Archbishop of Canterbury says that in the last forty years $20,000,000 has been spent by members of the Church of England in the restoration of old churches and on the building of new ones.

TRAVELER'S GUIDE.

PITTSBURGH CINCINNATI & ST. LOUIS R.R. (PAN-HANDLE ROUTE) AND PENNSYLVANIA RAIL ROAD. THE DIRECT LINE TO THE GREAT CENTENNIAL.

ON AND AFTER APRIL 1st, 1876, TRAINS WILL RUN AS FOLLOWS:

WILL RUN AS FOLLOWS:
EAST BOUND TRAINS.
STATIONS	No. 1.	No. 5.	No. 7.	No. 8.
Columbus.	12:20 PM	6:30 PM	1:00 AM	7:10
Newark ..	1:20 "	7:30 "	2:02 "	8:10
Dresden J.	2:08 "	8:23 "	2:50 "	9:43
Johnstown.	2:46 "	" 8:58 "	3:15 "	10:20
Johnstown.	" 3:24 "	10:00 "	4:23 "	11:50
Johnstown.	4:25 "	11:10 "	5:05 "	1:18
Johnstown & wife	5:25 "	12:00AM	6:05 "	2:30
Pittsburg.	7:15 "	2:00 "	7:50 "	5:20
Harrisburg.	3:45 AM	11:20 "	3:55 PM	.....
Johnstown.	7:35 "	6:25 "	7:35 "	.....
Washington.	8:02 "	8:07 "	8:07 "	.....
Philadelphia J.	7:35 "	3:30 "	8:30 "	.....
New York.	10:25 "	6:45 "	10:26 "	.....
New York.	9:05 PM	6:15 AM	.....	.....